

Akron Aeros Baseball

The Akron Aeros, the Double-A affiliate of the Cleveland Indians, have become one of the most successful franchises in Minor League Baseball and continue to be one of the top draws among the 176 Minor League organizations.

Since joining the Eastern League in 1997, the organization has received numerous awards and accolades, including two Eastern League Championships, four Southern Division Championships and being named Baseball America's Minor League Team of the Year. In fact, the Aeros are the only professional sports franchise in Northeast Ohio to win a championship in the last 43 years (Eastern League Champions in 2003 and 2005).

In 2007, the Aeros surpassed the five-million mark in attendance, reconfirming that the Aeros remain one of the most popular attractions in Northeast Ohio.
